

Second National ADAC/ACTA Conference

“REACHING OUT TO PEOPLE WITH ANXIETY DISORDERS: MAKING A DIFFERENCE THAT MATTERS”

This conference took place in Markham Ontario on May 27- 29th 2005

PRE- CONFERENCE INSTITUTE:

Understanding and Treating Generalized Anxiety Disorder

Michel Dugas, Ph.D, Concordia University

CONFERENCE :

Plenary Session: Primary Prevention in the Schools: Implementation of the Friends Program in British Columbia

Lynn Miller, Ph.D

Update on the Treatment of Generalized Anxiety Disorder

Michel Dugas, Ph.D

The Canadian Community Health Survey: Epidemiology of Anxiety Disorders and Need for Care

John Walker, Ph.D.

Nicolas Kate, Ph.D.

Increasing the Availability of Effective Treatments: Training Mental Health Staff in Cognitive Behaviour Therapy

Peter McLean, Ph.D.

The Shared Care Approach: Internet Based Treatment

Peter Farvolden, M.D.

Update on the Treatment of Obsessive Compulsive Disorder

Maureen Whittal, M.D.

Update on the Treatment of Social Anxiety Disorder

Michael Van Ameringen, M.D.

Jonathan Oakman, M.D.

Full Day CBT Training for Family Practitioners

Greg Dubord, M.D.

POST- CONFERENCE CONSUMER INFORMATION SESSION

Impact of Anxiety Disorders in Canada

Questions and answers/ Discussion groups on the following topics:

Panic Disorder / Agoraphobia
Generalized anxiety disorder
Social anxiety disorder
Obsessive compulsive disorder
Children's anxiety disorders